

I would urge you not to weaken the Do Not Call law. I am thankful that most unsolicited phone calls to my home have stopped. The calls had become extremely disruptive, and the callers can be unduly aggressive.